Come share the magic of Christmas on K Street. It's 1947, and six-year-old Nancy is bubbling with excitement and energy in anticipation of all that is to come. Nancy and her beloved family celebrate each timeless holiday tradition: picking out the perfect Christmas tree, baking an array of delectable dishes for Christmas dinner, and dreaming of the presents that Santa will bring. Not forgotten amidst all the fun and festivity is the true reason for Christmas: the birth of the Christ child.

As the family trims the tree, Nancy ventures into the attic in search of her favorite ornaments but instead stumbles upon an unexpected discovery: a dusty old ornament that, when polished, glows and shimmers brilliantly. Little does Nancy know the power this ornament holds or the valuable lesson that it will lead to.

Christmas on K Street: The Ornament Divine will warm the hearts of readers young and old, reminding them that love and faith are the greatest gifts of all.
