Mom's Home-Cooking William Maltese, Pam Hoffman

As we contemplated the idea of gathering up this collection of Mom's recipes, we hesitated initially, not quite sure we would end up with a sufficient number to justify an actual book. As you can tell, though, much to our surprise and delight, Mom's cooking repertoire exceeded our remembrances and expectations. Moreover, we're positive that we have missed many that Dad and she incorporated into their lives after we kids left the nest.

Needless to say, we have thoroughly enjoyed reminiscing and becoming reacquainted with dishes we enjoyed while growing up, and it's, now, our hope that, as you peruse this book, you too will find recipes that'll become traditions for you and your family, creating memories of your very own.
