This is a chain maille jewelry making project that uses combination of European 1 in 4 and Whirlybird techniques. It requires only basic supplies such as jump rings and beads. You can mix and match using different materials and colors of jump rings as well as beads to come up with many beautiful variations. The technique taught is for intermediate students who have some wire working experience. The tutorial comes with a total of 15 steps and more than 20 pictorial guides. So a beginner might also attempt to make it. You can turn the Cabochon to a pair of earrings or pendant. I am interested to find out if anyone is able to apply this to a bracelet? Share with me your creation!
