A Sicilian Romance Ann Radcliffe

What horrible history lies below the castles in the caverns of Sicily?

Located on Sicily's northern shore, the castle of Mazzini was home to the beautiful and clever sisters Emilia and Julia. They have lived there for years with their governess after their father, the marquis, moved to Naples with his second wife. When he unexpectedly returns with their brother Ferdinand, mysterious events begin to occur around the castle. Rooms abandoned for years suddenly have strange tenants.

Visiting the castle is a valiant and handsome friend of Ferdinand named Hippolitus, who immediately catches the eyes of both Julia and her stepmother. However, the marquis has his own ideas for who Julia's husband should be, and he will stop at nothing to get his way, no matter what the cost to his daughters.
