Banu Qasi. Los hijos de Casio (B de Books) (Spanish Edition) Carlos Aurensanz

Destinado desde su nacimiento a dirigir a su pueblo, Musa ibn Musa toma su nombre del gran conquistador de la Península, que varias generaciones antes había alcanzado el valle del Ebro para someter al conde visigodo Casio. Sus descendientes, los Banu Qasi, ya convertidos al Islam, desempeñarán un papel más que relevante en la región durante el siglo IX de nuestra era. Junto al caudillo árabe, comparten el protagonismo de esta historia Íñigo Arista, hermano de madre de Musa, que ha de convertirse en el primer rey de Pamplona. Por otra, el emir de Córdoba, Abd al Rahman II, artífice del esplendor político y cultural de Al Ándalus en este período. En un escenario caracterizado por el enfrentamiento entre el Islam y el Cristianismo, Musa e Íñigo tratan de mantener la soberanía y la independencia de sus pueblos colocando sus lazos familiares por delante de sus diferencias de credo. Sometidos a los vaivenes de la historia, ambos se convertirán, también, en sus protagonistas.
