Have you ever felt inadequate as a Christian-that your prayers went unheard? Have you-at other times-felt God's leading so intensely that your heart leapt? If so, you are not alone. Taking The Long Way Home is the story of Christian pilgrimage-from childhood to golden years. The authors describe candidly their journeys, recalling events that helped shape who they ultimately became. They share hopes and fears for children and grandchildren, as well as appreciation for spouses. They talk frankly about aging. In this book, you will meet special individuals whose lives have illuminated the way for others. You will be reminded of beloved truths from the Bible-our Road Map.
