Nunca Enamores a un Forastero / 2° Edición (Spanish Edition) Ramón Díaz Eterovic

Heredia recibe una carta de Severino Caicheo, antiguo compañero de universidad que reside en Punta Arenas y está vinculado a actividades relacionadas con la defensa de los Derechos Humanos. A desgano, y tan solo motivado por la amistad, viaja a la ciudad más austral del mundo para investigar dos inesperados asesinatos: el de su amigo Caicheo, y el de Doris Mollet, una bella y atractiva heredera. Desde su refugio en una cálida pensión de propiedad de un matrimonio de inmigrantes croatas, Heredia inicia su investigación con la ayuda de Drago, un simpático policía local, y de "Firpo" Rondinoni, un ex pugilista argentino que vive recordando sus pasadas glorias deportivas. La investigación lo lleva a explorar la intimidad de dos familias de ricos comerciantes, y el submundo de un grupo de policías corruptos que, a toda costa, quieren evitar que Heredia descubra la verdad que tanto le interesa. Lejos de su barrio y de sus amigos habituales, Heredia debe recurrir a la ayuda de nuevos amigos y buscar consuelo en los brazos de Yasna Matic, una hermosa mujer empeñada en enamorar al forastero que ha llegado a golpear la puerta de su casa. Como es habitual en las novelas de Díaz Eterovic, en esta historia se encuentran acertadas y convincentes atmósferas, y tiene un estilo que destaca por su ironía y humor. Nunca enamores a un forastero, la tercera novela de la serie protagonizada por el detective Heredia, se publicó el año 1999 y al año siguiente fue traducida y publicada en Croacia.
