Rough Ride: Life Isn't Always a Box of Chocolates P J King

Midsomer Murders meets Jilly Cooper with a dash of Fifty Shades thrown in. In this romp in the hay, racy thriller set amidst the horsey scene, meet bad boy Charles, the rich city trader, and his East End wife Jennifer who live an idyllic and privileged rural lifestyle. But life in the country isn't always the box of chocolates it seems, especially when Charles' sins catch up with him. After a one-off and reckless sexual encounter with Laura, she decides to seek her revenge, encouraging urban invaders to destroy his rural harmony, which will guarantee a Rough Ride ahead for them all. "Rough Ride, the debut novel by P.J. King, offers the reader an extraordinary tale of lust and intrigue set within the chocolate box world of the county set. If it's a good plot, suspense and sex you are after then Rough Ride will be right up your street. The woman are sexy, the villains cruel and ruthless, and the horses, like everyone else in this story are both well turned out and ridden hard. A great yarn!" W Hancock
