A história de Edgar Sawtelle (Portuguese Edition) David Wroblewski

Mudo desde o nascimento, Edgar Sawtelle se comunica apenas por sinais e bilhetes. Leva com os pais uma vida tranquila, na fazenda da família. Ao longo de gerações, os Sawtelles criaram e treinaram uma raça de cães cujo dedicado companheirismo tem sua síntese em Almondine, a amiga e eterna aliada de Edgar. A volta inesperada de Claude, o tio paterno, leva o caos ao então pacífico lar dos Sawtelles. Após a morte repentina do pai de Edgar, Claude se insinua na vida da fazenda e conquista o afeto da mãe do menino.

Confuso e dominado pelo sofrimento, o rapaz tenta provar que Claude teve algum papel na morte de seu pai, mas o plano fracassa e se volta contra ele, resultando em novas tragédias. Ao fugir para a área florestal nos limites da fazenda, Edgar amadurece em contato com a vida selvagem, por ter de lutar pela própria sobrevivência e a dos três jovens cães que o acompanharam. Contudo, a necessidade de apontar e de enfrentar o assassino do pai e a devoção aos cachorros sawtelle fazem o menino voltar para casa.

David Wroblewski é um mestre da narrativa, um contador de histórias que arquiteta cenas e desenlaces arrebatadores: as fazendas primitivas do Norte dos Estados Unidos, o embate do homem com as forças da natureza, a mudança das estações, um icônico celeiro americano, uma aparição sobrenatural na chuva são alguns dos elementos dessa fascinante saga familiar, que trata de ódios, rancores e paixões.

The Wall Street Journal "Pronto para ser um sucesso."

O, The Oprah Magazine "O surgimento de um clássico: Quer seja lido pela beleza da linguagem, quer pela complexidade da trama, você vai se apaixonar pelo adorável, generoso, quase transcendental romance de estreia de David Wroblewski, A história de Edgar Sawtelle."

The Washington Post Book World "Um romance generoso, no qual é possível mergulhar, perder-se e, finalmente, voltar à tona, relutante, um pouco surpreso pelo fato de o mundo real ter continuado a girar enquanto você estava encantado."

Stephen King "Maravilhoso, misterioso, longo e prazeroso: leitores que escolherem A história de Edgar Sawtelle entrarão em um mundo mais rico. Invejo a viagem que farão. Eu não releio muitos livros, porque a vida é curta demais. Vou reler esse."
