Why did Wang Xizhi want to exchange goose with the note?" The curious pupils will have the question while listening to the question. It is believed that many pupils know him when Wang Xizhi is mentioned. He was the most famous calligrapher in Chinese history, reputed as "Holy Calligrapher". He had a special hobby – he liked goose very much. In ordinary days he liked to raise and observe goose, integrating the inspiration into the calligraphy through observing the cry and expression of goose. The Chinese character "E" written by him was finished in one stroke, being called "one-stroke-E".
