All Gerard wants is to find a nice, young, sexy, farm boy. Someone who will understand him, love him, and most of all, someone who will knock his socks off in bed. Is that too much to ask for? He doesn't think so, but even the Farm Boys Only web site can't help him, no one lives in his area and he's not interested in long distance or city boys. After encouragement from his local gay couple who run the only Salon in town, during a haircut, Gerard gives the site one more shot. There's a new member, and Gerard falls hard for the new farm boy, Chad. But, when he finds out Chad's keeping secrets will those secrets be too much to handle, even for a tough farm boy like Gerard?
