Sangue Imperiale (Italian Edition) Fabio Sorrentino

Tre giorni prima delle none di settembre del 96 d.C., il princeps peregrinorum Trebonio Macrino, a capo di un ufficio per il controspionaggio creato dall'imperatore Domiziano, è inviato nella cittadina campana di Liternum in compagnia del suo fidato liberto Labieno. Da qualche tempo un misterioso assassino si accanisce contro le prostitute del più famoso lupanare della colonia, lasciando dietro di sé una scia di sangue e orrore. Nel contempo a Roma, negli ambienti senatoriali, affaristici e militari, si trama alle spalle del principe. Tra riunioni segrete e depistaggi, incontri apparentemente fortuiti e intuizioni, Macrino e Labieno cercano disperatamente di venire a capo del problema, immergendosi in una realtà fatta di intrighi, bugie, mistificazioni. Riuscirà Macrino a sbrogliare l'intricata matassa? Quali connessioni esistono tra la vicenda di Liternum e quanto in procinto di accadere a Roma? Un romanzo solido e appassionante, in cui i personaggi vivono pienamente i giorni più gloriosi dell'antica civiltà latina.
