A prim lady. A Scottish rogue. Heaven help them.

A dangerous ocean voyage . . .

Straight-laced teetotaler Elizabeth Lee and roguish Scotsman Kincade MacKay are bound for the American frontier on the same storm-tossed ship--and it's not big enough for their battle of wills.

Two star-crossed strangers . . .

He won't stand for her lectures on the evils of hard drinking, and she won't bear his troublemaking ways. Yet she can't stop thinking about him, and he can't resist the thought of kissing her until neither of them can remember what they're fighting about.

A guardian angel playing Cupid . . .

Tabitha helps them survive the journey, but once the mismatched couple reach shore, still at odds and battling their passions, even an angel will need some help . . .
