Erin rose first and went to the window to see how much snow had fallen during the night. She closed her eyes, rubbed, and opened them again, trying to focus clearly. The snow was pink! Heavenly Flavors is the story of the Jackson family's first winter in Alaska. Faced with a shortage of food and quickly accumulating snowfall, the family was in a desperate situation with no solution in sight, until a miracle from God rescued them. Taste what happens when prayer brings Heavenly Flavors. This is an eLIVE book, meaning each printed copy contains a special code redeemable for the free download of the audio version of the book.
