La grande resistenza: potenza iberica (Italian Edition) Daniele Zumbo

Il testo prende spunto dalle vicende dell'imperatore Flavio Claudio Giuliano, un filosofo romano, famoso per aver cercato di restaurare la religione romana. Giuliano, definito l'apostata è protagonista di una vicenda che prende parzialmente spunto da vicende realmente accadute e, nutrendosi di pura fantasia e di fatti inventati ed inesistenti storicamente, costruisce una fitta trama per la conquista e liberazione della città di Zamora. Un occhio particolare è gettato sulla guerra, questa infatti è essenzialmente, come la si voglia classificare una forma di combattimento.

Riprendendo le antiche strategie incorporate a metodiche più o meno moderne si giunge al medesimo risultato.
