Adelchi (Italian Edition) Alessandro Manzoni

Adelchi è una tragedia scritta da Alessandro Manzoni, pubblicata per la prima volta nel 1822. Narra le vicende di Adelchi, figlio dell'ultimo re dei Longobardi, Desiderio, che si svolgono tra il 772 e il 774, anno della caduta del regno longobardo a opera di Carlo Magno (anch'egli protagonista della tragedia). Adelchi è una tragedia che mette in scena la caduta del regno longobardo in Italia ad opera dei Franchi nell'VIII secolo. Il significato profondo della figura di Adelchi e del suo dialogo con il padre è importante e allo stesso tempo innovativo: riflette infatti sul fatto che anche loro, prima di essere stati sconfitti da Carlo e dai Franchi, si erano dovuti imporre su altre popolazioni. In parole povere riflette sulla ciclicità della storia, e da ciò ne consegue un miglioramento sul piano morale del personaggio. In quest'opera Manzoni inizia a sviluppare il tema della Divina Provvidenza che sarà poi fulcro tematico dei Promessi sposi. Qui la storia è contemplata attraverso il dramma interiore dei protagonisti, sublimato in una visione religiosa della vita. Adelchi ed Ermengarda sono spiriti ricchi di contrasti fra ideali e sentimenti (la pace e la gloria per il primo, l'amore ancora vivo del marito per la seconda). Nelle tragedie manzoniane incontriamo due categorie di personaggi. I primi hanno un concreto senso della realtà e sono capaci di agire, restando insensibili alle voci del cuore, i secondi invece vivono per alti e nobili ideali, comprendono le angosce e sofferenze degli altri e trovano solo nella morte la piena realizzazione della loro complessa e travagliata personalità.
