PONY CLUB GUIDE TO BITS AND BITTING Carolyn Henderson

Riding is all about communication with your horse or pony, whether you're enjoying your first lessons or competing in the Pony Club championships. Choosing the right bit and using it correctly plays a vital part. This new title has been commissioned by The Pony Club to explain the subject in the clearest way possible. With photographs, illustrations and diagrams throughout, this book describes the equipment, how to use it, when to use it why they should (or should not) use it, and the effects it will have as well as problem-solving and lots of other useful facts and information.
