Two-Lane Theology: seeking fresh faith on the road Tom Ehrich

"Two-Lane Theology" answers the question: If I took a slow drive across the US and looked for God along the way, what would I see? Don't pretend to be John Steinbeck "searching for America." Just be myself, meandering some days, stopping here and there, going random. All in a fresh search for God.

All searching for God becomes personal and unique. My searching has value for you if it encourages you to do your own search for God.
