La masonería y la pérdida de las colonias. Estudios (Escuadra y Compás) (Spanish Edition) Manuel de Paz Sánchez

Reúne este libro nueve ensayos que fueron escritos, principalmente, durante la década de 1980 y publicados en actas de congresos internacionales y en revistas de difícil localización, salvo para los más avisados especialistas en la Historia de la masonería española y general. Los trabajos se agrupan en dos grandes bloques, por un lado el problema antillano (cubano-puertorriqueño) y, por otro, el relativo a los masones del Norte de África, donde brilla la originalidad del autor al ocuparse de un asunto escasamente tratado, pese a su importancia, por la historiografía española de las últimas generaciones. Este volumen, en consecuencia, se convierte en un texto de obligada referencia, tanto para los estudiosos como, especialmente, para el público interesado en una visión rigurosa, pero amena, de la historia de la masonería española y su trascendencia exterior.
